b) PRS Weekend: Three parallel streams at LUCA, Hoogstraat 51, 9000 Ghent

Examination:

PhD: Tom Holbrook (11 April, 10-12 am) (Chair: Prof Martyn Hook)

Opening Lecture:

The PRS Opening Lecture will be delivered on Friday 11 April, at the PRS Venue (LUCA, Hoogstraat 51):
Keynote Speaker: Prof. Michael McGarry
Topic: Figure and Metaphor - *Two placements in context

Recent Design work will serve as the material for an interrogation of a specific understanding of design processes in Michael McGarry's practice.

Research Methods:

ADAPT-r is committed to 2 days of 'Research Methods Training' (RMT) for ADAPT-r Fellows - RMIT offers 'Research Strategies'
RMT Friday 11th April: Morning Session: ADAPT-r Fellows and RMIT 'Research Strategies' candidates are requested to audit the Tom Holbrook Examination (Venue: Market Hall, Ghent)
Afternoon Session: Workshop with Case Studies & Reflective Learning Module
RMT Monday 14th April: ADAPT-r Fellows' RMT Day 1 (Friday 11th) will be complemented by a RMT Workshop (Day 2) in conjunction with a Supervisor Training Module (ST)
RMIT PhD candidates outside ADAPT-r who plan/wish to complete 'Research Strategies' as part of their PhD RMIT enrolment are invited to attend the one-day RMT (Research Methods Training) Intensive Module on Friday 11th April. Additional preceding engagement with the Monday 14th April ADAPT-r RMT session is most welcome.

All other PRS delegates, panellists and PRS guests are equally welcome to attend/audit the entire Ghent April ADAPT-r PRS RMT, TT and ST Program of Training Sessions as part of the ADAPT-r outreach activity; sessions are open from Thursday 10th April (starting at LUCA at 16.30 pm @ Luca-Raadzaal) onwards.

Transition Training:

ADAPT-r is committed to 2 days of 'Transition Training' (TT): Transition Training sessions are scheduled in parallel to "Research Methods Training" on Friday 11th April and Monday 14th April 2014 – an introductory session is offered on Thursday 10th April subject to demand.
